

2017 KRIMES AGAINST KIDS CONFERENCE FACT SHEET

The Florida Network of Children's Advocacy Centers' annual Crimes Against Kids Conference unites law enforcement officers, therapists, attorneys, social workers, victim advocates, and other professionals in the campaign to end child abuse. Attendees participate in indispensable training and networking opportunities, strengthening the multidisciplinary response to child welfare concerns on individual, institutional and community levels. Our Conference has earned an excellent reputation as evidenced by significant growth from 200 attendees in 2013 to over 300 attendees in 2014, 2015, & 2016.

General Information

Who: Attendees include Children's Advocacy Center staff and community partners, such as law enforcement officers, therapists, social workers, attorneys, social services, CPT staff, medical professionals, and child advocates. Educators and community members are also encouraged to attend.

What: The annual Crimes Against Kids Conference provides three days of quality training on child maltreatment issues, at minimal cost. Seminars equip professionals with both practical and innovative solutions against the various forms of crimes against children.

When: Wednesday, July 12 – Friday, July 14, 2017

Where: Lake Buena Vista, Florida, Disney's Beach and Yacht Club Resort

Rates: Resort Rooms: $179 per night (no additional parking or resort fees)

Registration: $350 per person –OR- Group Rate (4+): $325 per person

Conference Highlights

Education: More than 50 workshops presented by professionals from across the country offer current and effective strategies for addressing child abuse and healing survivors and families. Attendees may earn credits for continuing education.

Networking: Refreshment breaks and our opening night reception provide many opportunities for professionals to connect with colleagues across the nation and share best practices, success stories, and innovations in the field of child maltreatment.
